

Paralegal Accreditation

With many Ontario community colleges now having paralegal programs accredited by the Law Society of Upper Canada (LSUC), and many more with applications pending, Emond Montgomery is ready with supporting texts. We are committed to publishing more new texts and new editions in 2009 that are specifically tailored to the LSUC competencies.

The grid below matches up the LSUC competencies with Emond Montgomery texts. Please let us know if you would like to order a review copy, or to access our online faculty resource materials.
